
2015 Booklist

Dear Parents,

To ensure your child has the appropriate materials for their studies in Semester 1 the following Booklist is compulsory for each student.

It is important that your child's primary focus be their social and emotional wellbeing and their academic submissions. Whilst individual organisation and responsibility for possessions are an important part of your child's education, it is an ongoing process and something that will be developed over the course of the year.

In order to ensure your child has the materials they need when required and to minimise the need to replace items throughout the course of the semester we will purchase all items on the booklist and distribute as required during the course of the semester.

You may well be able to purchase some items cheaper however there is a rationale behind each of the products chosen. Because of the wide range of special needs of our students we must take care in what kinds of stationery are purchased and available at the school. For example certain pens are not appropriate for students with attention deficit issues as they are pulled apart into many pieces creating distractions.

Notebooks need to all be the same size as work is often set according to page lengths and it is important for students to be in the habit of working from a consistent line and page size. Pre ordered and pre named books also avoid the issue of students using and taking other students books and claiming them as their own.

Recent government legislation is very clear that workbooks meet content and presentation expectations set out by government standards for promotion from one year to another. Torn pages, graffiti and unnecessary artwork can result in students not passing that subject for the year.

We appreciate your co-operation.

Regards,

Kate Bevan,
